

31, 1996. The Department of the Interior, the San Carlos Apache Tribe and the other settlement parties all support this extension.

Madam President, it is extremely important for Congress to provide additional time to complete these historic settlements. The San Carlos Apache and Yavapai-Prescott agreements are the product of years of painstaking negotiation and effort by many parties. No one, and especially not the United States, would benefit from a lapse in the statutory authority for completing these settlements. Without the time extensions contained in S. 1431, the many fruits of these collective efforts could be lost. We simply cannot permit that to happen. I urge passage of the bill.

Mr. HELMS. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be deemed read the third time, passed, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table and that any statements relating to the bill be placed at the appropriate place in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

So the bill (S. 1431) was deemed read the third time, and passed, as follows:

S. 1431

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION. 1. YAVAPAI-PRESCOTT INDIAN TRIBE WATER RIGHTS SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1994.

Section 112(b) of the Yavapai-Prescott Indian Tribe Water Rights Settlement Act of 1994 (108 Stat. 4532) is amended by striking "December 31, 1995" and inserting "June 30, 1996".

SEC. 2. SAN CARLOS APACHE TRIBE WATER RIGHTS SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1992.

Section 3711(b)(1) of the San Carlos Apache Tribe Water Rights Settlement Act of 1992 (title XXXVII of Public Law 102-575) is amended by striking "December 31, 1995" and inserting "December 31, 1996".

ORDERS FOR FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1995

Mr. HELMS. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 10 a.m., Friday, December 8, that following the prayer, the Journal of the proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then proceed to the consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 31, the constitutional amendment regarding the desecration of the flag.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. HELMS. For the information of all Senators, by a previous consent agreement, the cloture motion on the motion to proceed to Senate Joint Resolution 31 was withdrawn earlier, and the Senate will begin debate on the constitutional amendment regarding flag desecration at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

There will be no rollcall votes during Friday's session of the Senate. It is hoped that during Friday's session of the Senate, we will reach a consent agreement in which all amendments to the flag desecration bill would be debated on Monday. If an agreement can be reached, it may be possible that there will be no rollcall votes during Monday's session, and any vote ordered on Monday will occur on Tuesday. If an agreement cannot be reached on the constitutional flag amendment on Friday, then votes will be possible during Monday's session on amendments to Senate Joint Resolution 31, but those votes will not occur before 6 p.m. Monday.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. HELMS. If there be no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 11:17 p.m., adjourned until Friday, December 8, 1995, at 10 a.m.
